COULD SCARCELY WALK ABOUT

And For Three Summers Mrs. Vincent Was Unable to Attend to Any of Her Household Work.

Pleasant Hill, N. C.—"I suffered for three summers," writes Mrs. Walter Vincent, of this town, "and the third and last time, was my worst."

I had dreadful nervous headaches and prostration, and was scarcely able to walk about. Could not do any of my household work.

I also had dreadful pains in my back and sides and when one of those weak, sinking spells would come on me, I would have to give up and lie down, until it wore off.

I was certainly in a dreadful state of health, when I finally decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I firmly believe I would have died if I hadn't taken it.

After I began taking Cardui, I was greatly helped, and all three bottles relieved me entirely.

I fattened up, and grew so much stronger in three months, I felt like another person altogether."

Cardui is purely vegetable and gentle-acting. Its ingredients have a mild, tonic effect, on the womanly constitution.

Cardui makes for increased strength, improves the appetite, tones up the nervous system, and helps to make pale, sallow cheeks, fresh and rosy.

Cardui has helped more than a million weak women, during the past 50 years. It will surely do for you, what it has done for them. Try Cardui today.

15 DAYS CAMP FOR MILITIA

Moore Secures Ample Funds.—New Enlistment Oath Required for Members of National Guard.

Columbia.—The annual encampment of the National Guard of South Carolina will continue for 15 days, according to W. W. Moore, adjutant general, who went to Washington for a conference with Secretary Baker relative to the property shortage.

"The encampment will last for 15 days," said the adjutant general. "As required by the new army bill. Every soldier in the National Guard must reenlist and take the new oath at once. The necessary funds for the encampment will be furnished upon requisition. Credit will be given to the men under the new oath for previous service. No new commands will be considered at the present time."

The adjutant general said that the new rules and regulations for the control of the militia were being prepared by the war department and would be issued in a few days.

The following is the new oath required for the members of the National Guard: "I hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this day of _____, 19____, as a soldier in the National Guard of the United States and do the state of _____ for the period of three years in service and three years in the reserve, under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority. And I do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the United States of America and to the state of _____, and that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the president of the United States and of the governor of the state of _____, and of the officers appointed over me according to law and the rules and articles of war."

Makes a Manly Confession.

I am a man and I should dress like a woman, if I were not such a coward, a writer in Life says.

That is, I should revel in velvets, in silks and satins, in plumes and ruffles, in rich or delicate colors, in dashing and dashing modes, in endless variety suited to my whim, to the weather or the occasion. It would be great fun. It would be an artistic gratification. But I don't dare.

In the days of knight hood, when men were really brave, they out-dressed the women; but in these degenerate days we do not venture our fancies beyond cravats. No man in modern times has dared to dress as he pleased except Oscar Wilde, and we buried him with craven hisses.

We men rail at women's fashions, but in our hearts we know ourselves to be the slaves of fashion; of one dull, deadly, monotonous fashion, which we hate, but from which we are too cowardly to free ourselves.

Good Lights Necessary.

Have you been using the same old sputtery lamps to read by. Then it is no wonder you are having trouble with your eyes. It pays to have good lights to work and read by. Better pay out money for good lamps than for spectacles. There are a number of improved makes of kerosene lamps that give a good, strong, steady light and also some very brilliant and economical gasoline lights. Some of these almost equal the brilliancy of electricity.—Exchange.

Preparations for High School and College.

MR. W. F. STEVENSON FOR CONGRESS.

Comment of Chesterfield County papers on county sentiment shown at the convention:

"The Chesterfield County Convention was notable for its representative attendance, being composed of leading men from practically every club in the county. It was even more notable for its unity and enthusiasm, especially in its action endorsing the candidacy of Hon. W. F. Stevenson for Congress. Partisan lines which cut deeply into his vote in this county two years ago have been obliterated and a united county is behind him, and the enthusiasm shown on the subject on last Monday warrants the prediction that his majority in this county will be the greatest ever given a candidate here who had an opponent."—Cheraw Chronicle, May 4.

"It is said that Chesterfield County is united as she has not been in thirty years before. This unity means much for the peace of the county during the coming campaign and it may mean much more. It may mean that Chesterfield county will furnish the next representative from the Fifth Congressional District to the United States Congress.

"If the enthusiasm for the Hon. W. F. Stevenson manifested at this convention represents the sentiment of the people of the county, Mr. Stevenson is sure of every vote to be cast in this county next fall—and that will help some."—Chesterfield Advertiser, May 4.
